Awarded an MBA with distinction, Quentin is also qualified to UK diploma level in Pension & Retirement Planning, Investment Principles & Risk, as well as holding qualifications in International Wealth Management and Mortgage Advice & Practise.

Quentin has been working in consumer protection for most of his career and has specialised in the Financial Services industry since the turn of this century. Initially as a Senior Manager at HBOS Life and Pensions in Buckinghamshire then, since his move to Spain in 2005 he has provided specialist advice in Tax, Mortgages, Pension and Investments to ensure his fellow expatriates are fully compliant with the very different taxation system in their new home in the sun. Quentin continues to study to ensure that he is up to date with the constant changes within the highly regulated financial services sector.

Outside of work, he has been married to Margaret, his wife for over 33 years. Together they have brought up five children, who in turn have added nine grandchildren (so far) to the Sellar family clan. Quentin enjoys rugby (sadly he's no longer playing), scuba diving, cooking and exploring some of the more remote parts of Spain.

WHAT QUENTIN'S CLIENTS HAVE TO SAY

John and Chris Dedman

We have found Quentin very good with our transactions in investing our money into savings and he keeps us up to date with any changes we need to know. Always there when you need to ask for advice.

If we're honest it's not very often you feel completely at ease with someone from the financial world, especially if you have little or no prior knowledge as in my case – with investing. A good friend of mine recommended Quentin and she wasn't wrong in doing so. Although I had spoken to and met with several other financial advisors to help with a recent inheritance, Quentin was definitely the one to choose. Everything was properly explained, every question answered no matter how large or small and I feel my monies are being well looked after by someone who actually cares.

I am so thankful that I met Quentin a few years ago as my husband had always dealt with our financial affairs but developed dementia. Quentin stepped into the breach and guided us through financial affairs and living in Spain. Since my husband has died he has continued to support me in all matters financial and I know he is there if I need him, but he does keep in regular contact so that I do not need to worry about my financial situation.

I feel very fortunate to have had Quentin recommended to me as my financial advisor. He has travelled that extra mile in order to put my investments in place. Especially through a very difficult year in the middle of a pandemic. Quentin is always available if I have any questions either by telephone or e-mail and he is extremely reliable and professional. He gives me peace of mind knowing my investments are growing and are in very good hands. Quentin is very knowledgeable in his field and I have no hesitation in recommending him.

John & Sue Mannall

Quentin has been very helpful and knowledgeable with the advice he has given us in changing our investments. He has taken great care with explaining his recommendations and assisting us with the paperwork to complete the transaction. We feel very comfortable in recommending Quentin.

Jane D

Quentin really got to know me and my financial needs and understood my excessively over cautious nature. He worked with me to find an investment solution that worked for me and one that I was happy with. He keeps in constant touch and I would recommend Quentin to anyone.

Stewart and Elaine

Quentin has been our advisor for many years. He is a very friendly, helpful, professional person. He explains all aspects of our finances and their implications in very understandable terms. He has on occasions talked us through various financial paperwork by phone and IT when it has been necessary. We have been very happy with Quentin's approach and advice.

Bernard F

Quentin has advised us for around a decade and we've always been impressed by his responsive and comprehensive assessments of the best way to secure our investments for a brighter future. He successfully combined a number of different private pension pots for my partner into one QROPS pension deposit, ensuring full tax advantages. More recently, when we sold our UK residence, Quentin helped us to put in place a bond with a return designed to replace the previous rental income while allowing us sufficient to pay tax and spend some of the proceeds on ourselves.

Quentin has a well-earned reputation as an expert in his field, with many years experience in meeting the requirements of his clients. I have confidently recommended him to many of my own customers, as I know his advice is useful and correct. It is well worth contacting him if you have a related query.
